

Proposed Template of the Summary Accreditation Report for Publication

(HKCAAVQ Logo) SUMMARY VALIDATION REPORT

HIGHER DIPLOMA in APPLIED AND MEDIA ARTS

HONG KONG ART SCHOOL

date (date of the issuance of the final accreditation report)

The Hong Kong Art School is a self-financed institution offering award bearing programmes in four major areas: Fine Art, Applied Art, Media Art, and Drama Education, ranging from foundation diploma, higher diploma to bachelor's and master's degree level.

The intended objectives of the Higher Diploma in Applied and Media Arts Programme are to:

- (a) To offer a multi-disciplinary route for students to experience the various dimensions of communication ranging from 2D to 3D and covering the elements of time and space;
- (b) To nurture students' social and cultural awareness through the development of critical thinking, individuality and social consciousness; and
- (c) To prepare students for future industry/ professional development or further academic studies in conjunction with the Applied and Media Arts disciplines and other creative fields.

(note: to be provided by client, but verified with accreditation submission in 250 words)

Determinations of the HKCAAVQ

The Higher Diploma in Applied and Media Arts Programme is accredited by the HKCAAVQ for implementation in (date) (subject to x pre-conditions and y requirements.)

| | |
|-----------------------------|--|
| Title of Learning Programme | Higher Diploma in Applied and Media Arts |
|-----------------------------|--|